Since 1899, Methodist Family Health has helped rebuild the lives of Arkansas children and their families who are abandoned, abused, neglected and struggling with psychiatric, behavioral, emotional and spiritual issues. What began as the Arkansas Methodist Orphanage is today a comprehensive, statewide continuum of care that includes Methodist Behavioral Hospital, psychiatric residential treatment facilities, qualified residential treatment programs, a therapeutic day treatment program, outpatient and school-based counseling clinics, Arkansas CARES and Kaleidoscope Grief Center.

In accordance with Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and their implementing regulations, Methodist Family Health provides treatment, recruits and hires, promotes and compensates without regard to race, age, religion, sex, national origin, creed, handicap, color, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or associational preference.

Transforming Grief

Losing a loved one is difficult for everyone, and grieving a loss is essential to accepting painful feelings and creating an opportunity for growth and a new sense of normal.

Camp Healing Hearts is for Arkansas children ages 5 to 18 and their families who are grieving the death of a loved one. Utilizing both therapy and recreation, our camp offers children and families an opportunity to discover their own inner strength. We DO require an adult caregiver accompany the grieving child or children attending camp.

2024 Camp Healing Hearts is Friday, May 17 and Saturday, May 18, 2024.
Registration Deadline is Sunday, May 5, 2024.

Reflect. Reconnect. Rediscover.

Camp Healing Hearts is a FREE overnight camp at Camp Aldersgate that includes heart-to-heart time, swimming, fishing, crafts, games, campfires, s'mores and much more.
